APPENDIX A: Woody Guthrie Home Recordings Finding Aid

Creator: Woody Guthrie Archives

Title: Woody Guthrie Home Recordings

Dates: 1949-1958

Extent: 15 1/4 inch reel-to-reel audiotapes

Historical/Biographical Note: see http://woodyguthrie.org/biography/biography1.htm

Scope and Content Note: The Woody Guthrie Home Recordings consist of fifteen ¼ inch reel-to-reel audiotapes. The tapes were recorded between 1949 and 1958 by Woody Guthrie or his immediate family. The tapes include recordings of Guthrie singing his songs (sometimes accompanying his own recordings) and dance classes conducted by Guthrie's wife Marjorie. In addition, the recordings document family gatherings, including a December 1951 recording with Guthrie's mother-in-law Aliza Greenblatt and grandmother-in-law. Many of these tapes are recorded on acetate-based tape, which is inherently unstable and prone to brittleness, deformation and vinegar syndrome.

These recordings offer a rare and intimate glimpse into the Guthrie's home life, including the chaos of large family gatherings, the oral traditions of Marjorie's European Jewish family, and rare glimpses of Guthrie singing and playing along to his own recordings. In addition, these recordings contain very early performances by Arlo, Joady and Nora Guthrie. Several reels also provide insight in the Guthrie family after Woody and Marjorie divorced, including reels from 1958 with a "panel discussion" between Marjorie, Arlo, Joady and Nora on topic such as space travel and integration.

Arrangement: Tapes are arranged alphabetically by title.

Restrictions: Tapes are unavailable for playback. CD Audio access copies exist for some tape. Consult archivist for further information

Provenance: The provenance of this collection is unknown.
