  <description> This documentary presents the daring work of the ICTUS Theater company, which produced plays and videos under the Pinochet regime that analyzed how the government instilled fear and self-censorship in the population. ICTUS's videos were made to be shown in community settings with the objective of helping people anesthetized by the Pinochet regime to recover their "forbidden dreams." Interviews with the principals of the company are interspersed with clips from their plays and video productions. "The government feels that we do no damage," says one of the group's directors. "But with art we have a powerful weapon.</description>

  <description> Este documental presenta el trabajo osado de la Compañía de Teatro ICTUS, que produjo obras de teatro y videos bajo el regimen de Pinochet que analizaban la forma en que el gobierno infundía miedo y auto-censura a la población. Los videos de ICTUS fueron hechos para ser mostrados en la escena comunitaria con el objetivo de ayudar a la gente, anestesiada por el regimen de Pinochet, a recobrar sus "sueños prohibidos". Entrevistas con los actores de la compañía son intercaladas con clips de sus obras teatrales y producciones audiovisuales. "El gobierno siente que nosotros no hacemos daño" dice uno de los directores del grupo. "Pero tenemos un arma ponderosa: el arte".</description>
